About the Lutheran Coalition For Habitat

The Lutheran Coalition for Habitat for Humanity, Inc. is an organization consisting of 12 Lutheran Churches located in Cobb, Fulton and Cherokee counties. The Coalition has been building houses since 1993 and has built at least one and sometimes two houses per year.

The Lutheran Coalition for Habitat, Inc. is a 501(c)3 organization. All contributions to the Coalition are tax deductible under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation's Employer Identification Number is: 26-4741170.

About the Taste of Habitat

The eighteenth annual Taste of Habitat event is set for Friday, September 16 at the beautiful Metropolitan Club in Alpharetta from 7-9 PM. Taste raises money for the Habitat houses built by the Lutheran Coalition. The Taste is for adults and includes live music, coffee bar and a full cash bar in addition to the tasty treats from over 60 Lutheran chefs. There will be a trivia contest and silent auction at the Taste this year!
